

PRESS RELEASE

BUWOG enters the EPRA Europe Index

Brussels – April 29, 2014: Frankfurt-listed real estate company BUWOG (BKXG457) will be included in the FTSE EPRA/NAREIT Developed Europe Index as of May 07, 2014.

They passed all Fast Track entry eligibility criteria, according to EPRA.

Reacting to the news, CEO of BUWOG, Daniel Riedl commented: "Being included in the EPRA Index is an achievement we highly appreciate. This wider recognition of our strategy and the expertise of our team encourages our commitment towards transparency in BUWOG and being a member of this global index should help us remaining on and getting onto the investor radar."

Philip Charls, CEO of EPRA added: "It's due to excellent performance and clarity of reporting that BUWOG joins the EPRA Index – the leading club of European property companies."

The EPRA index is the global benchmark, and the most widely used investment index for listed real estate. The total number of constituents in the European index, after this inclusion stands at 86; which represents a free-float market capitalisation of approximately EUR 129 billion. The ground-rules for index inclusion are publicly available on the EPRA website index section.

Note to editors

About EPRA

The European Public Real Estate Association - is the voice of the publicly traded European real estate sector. With more than 200 active members, EPRA represents over EUR 250 billion of real estate assets and 90% of the market capitalisation of the FTSE EPRA/NAREIT Europe Index. Through the provision of better information to investors, improvement of the general operating environment, encouragement of best practices and the cohesion and strengthening of the industry, EPRA works to encourage greater investment in listed real estate companies in Europe.

For more information, please contact:

Ali Zaidi, Senior Research Analyst: a.zaidi@epra.com