

The Outstanding Contribution to Society (=OCS) Award 2023 – Eligibility criteria.

EPRA acknowledges the increasing importance to its members' initiatives that aim for a social or an environmental positive change in a community. We will therefore grant an OCS - Award following a selection and voting process.

1/ Who can submit a project

- Listed property company
- An investor or non-member can nominate an EPRA member's project
- EPRA member
- Main operations in EMEA

2/ Project entry requirements/ nomination

- Submission of a project that aims for a social OR environmental positive change in a community.
- The project can be any type of construction / refurbishment / repurposing of building(s) OR a corporate initiative (e.g.: educating / raising awareness on a social challenge in a community).
- The project must have started no earlier than 2018 (including ongoing projects).

About EPRA

The European Public Real Estate Association, is the voice of the publicly traded European real estate sector. Founded in 1999, EPRA is a not-for-profit association registered in Belgium. With more than 280 members, covering the whole spectrum of the listed real estate industry (companies, investors and their stakeholders), EPRA represents over EUR 790 billion of real estate assets and 94% of the market capitalisation of the FTSE EPRA Nareit Europe Index.

EPRA's mission is to promote, develop and represent the European public real estate sector. We achieve this through the provision of better information to investors and stakeholders, active involvement in the public and political debate, promotion of best practices and the cohesion and strengthening of the industry.

